Anti-Slavery Office,
New York, 27 Sept., 1862.

115

Dear Garrison,

The question is fully decided:— we will go next week, and you may look for Fanny and me on Thursday morning. If you can go to Mount Holburn with me on Thursday, of course I shall be glad of your company; but don't put yourself to the slightest inconvenience.

The [redacted] arrangements are all made for you to speak on Slavery & the war in Peabham on Sunday, Oct. 5th — once, if not twice. The ministers and deacons of the Cong. Churches have unanimously agreed that the pulpit shall be at your service, and notice of your coming will be given out to the people of the town to-morrow (Sunday).

If the weather is favorable, you have as large an audience as the house can hold.

Yours, faithfully,

Oliver Johnson

).

r

O. J. N.Y. Sept. 27, 1862